The Honorable Spencer M. King
Ambassador
U.S. Embassy
Georgetown, Guyana

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Earlier this week I wrote you a rather frantic letter asking your help in getting news of my daughter, [redacted] who went to Guyana some weeks ago with the Peoples Temple group.

As so often happens, I received a letter from her today, very cheerful, and full of praise for the beauties of Guyana and her new life.

So you will not need to acknowledge my earlier letter. Just keep it on file, if you will, in case my daughter ever needs to use my American Express number to come home in an emergency.

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
